You may not apply as an owner of any insurance policy on the life of a prospective customer, nor list yourself as beneficiary of any such policy, unless you have a legitimate insurable interest in the life of the proposed insured as determined by appropriate law and by us. You may not make any representations, promises or warrants regarding product benefits or values not specifically stated in the insurance contract. You may not give any legal, investment or tax advice on our behalf unless licensed to do so.

2. Independent Contractor

You are our independent contractor. Nothing contained in this Contract may be construed to create an employer-employee relationship between you and us. You are free to exercise independent judgment as to the time, place and manner you may perform the acts you are authorized to perform under this contract; but from time to time we may set forth certain rules, policies, guidelines and operating procedures with respect to the conduct of business by which you must abide. You have no authority, express or implied, to act in any manner or by any means for or on behalf of us in any capacity other than that of an independent contractor, and you have no authority to act in any manner except as herein expressly set forth. No authority may be implied from the authority expressly granted herein. All applications for insurance contracts must be acceptable to us in our sole discretion and our right of acceptance or rejection is absolute and unrestricted. 13. Compensation

Compensation, fees and bonuses, if any, will be paid in accordance with the commission schedule provided to you, as modified from time to time, for production by you or your producers. Amounts payable to you on sales by your producers will be reduced by the amount payable to such producer(s), so that you will receive only the override on such sales. We reserve the right to revise the Commission and/or Service Fee rate levels set forth in the commission schedule at any time and from time to time, at our sole discretion. You must obtain your commission statements and production reports by accessing our producer extranet website. If commissions are payable to you by an upline producer under a "zero comp" or "license only" arrangement, you agree that we have no obligation to pay any compensation directly to you and you agree to indemnify and hold us harmless from all losses and expenses, including attorneys fees, resulting from any claim by you for such compensation, notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary.

We may amend from time to time the terms and conditions for payment of Compensation as set forth on any supplement. We will give you written notice of any such amendment. No amendment will reduce the Compensation paid to you on business sold by you or your producers prior to the effective date of the amendment. You must not engage in any type of compensation rebating unless permitted by applicable law and not prohibited by company practice.

No compensation or other fees will be paid on premiums waived under the provisions of any policy procured by you or any of your sub-producers.

14. Indemnity and Indebtedness/Right of Set-Off

You agree to indemnify and hold us harmless for any losses, claims, liabilities, lawsuits, costs or expenses we incur (including attorneys' fees and costs) as a result of any acts or omissions by you or your producers. This indemnity and hold harmless will extend to any debt you or your producers incur (including the costs of collection and attorneys fees). You agree to pay any debit balance owed to us when due, and any debit balance(s) of your producers remaining after completion of any debt collection we may undertake.

You grant to us a first priority security interest in all compensation payable to you to the extent of any indebtedness or other obligation you or your producers owe to us, and we will have the right of offset against any such compensation or any other monies paid or owed to you. Any amount not fully paid within thirty (30) days of demand will bear interest at the rate of 6.75% per year, as amended from time to time upon notice to you by us. This right of set-off will also apply to any compensation payable to you after termination of this contract.

15. Termination

This Contract may be terminated with or without cause by either you or us immediately upon written notice to the last known address of the other party. This Contract is terminated automatically without cause upon your death if it is an individually signed (non-corporate) contract, or if you are a partnership, LLC or corporation, upon any event legally or contractually causing the dissolution of that entity. We may terminate this Contract "for cause" immediately upon written notice to your last known address. "For Cause" shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

- a) you withhold, embezzle or misappropriate any money or other property belonging to us, to a policyowner or to an insured;
- b) you subject us to a liability;
- c) you fail to comply with the laws, rules or regulations of any federal, state or other governmental agency or body having jurisdiction over you or us, or with our rules and operating procedures, including without limitation those rules and procedures set forth in our Compliance Guide and our OFAC and AML policies and procedures;
- d) you commit a material breach of this Contract;
- e) you commit any fraud or material misrepresentation of fact including but not limited to misrepresentation of any fact on the Application for Contract;
- f) you fail to pay any indebtedness to us upon demand;
- g) you are, or have ever been, convicted of or plead guilty or nolo contendere ("no contest") to any felony or to any crime involving dishonesty, breach of trust, or violation of any federal law;
- h) you are not a duly licensed insurance agent;
- i) you engage directly or indirectly in rebating of commissions payable or paid in connection with the purchase of insurance contracts; or
- j) you engage in any effort to systematically replace the policies or contracts written with us by you or your producers.

Upon termination for cause, no further compensation will be payable hereunder. Except as otherwise provided, first year and renewal commissions will be fully vested as premiums are applied. Upon termination with or without cause, no further service fee commissions or performance and persistency bonus payments, if any, will be payable, and supplies and all other property and materials, including marketing materials and company business cards, furnished by us will be returned to us within ten (10) days. In addition, any bonus plan and finance plan payments, if any, will cease upon any termination of this contract, unless agreed to otherwise by us in writing.

Following termination with or without cause, we may withhold any compensation or other monies payable to you for a period not to exceed 365 days.

16. Suspension

We retain the right, with or without prior notice, to place you and/or any of your sub-producers on suspension and/or suspend the processing of any submitted insurance or annuity applications as a result of (i) any suspected or alleged misconduct; (ii) any violation, breach, suspected violation or suspected breach of any provision hereof; or (iii) any complaint issued or disciplinary action taken, by any state or federal insurance agency or department, the National Association of Securities Dealers, or any other governmental or quasi-governmental entity. During the period of suspension, suspended agents may not take any action to solicit or procure applications for our products, directly or through agents, brokers or employees. Furthermore, during the period of suspension, suspended agents will not be entitled to qualify for any reward, incentive or other promotional programs including, but not limited to, conference credits, previously awarded to them or awarded during the period of suspension. The period of suspension will not exceed three (3) months or such longer period as we may deem appropriate for the investigation of such violation or suspected violation. We reserve the right to terminate you or any of your sub-producers at any time during the period of suspension and the duration of the suspension will count towards any requirement that you or your sub-producer receive notice of termination, including the notice requirements set forth in Section 15 above.

17. Arbitration

You and we agree that any disputes arising out of or relating to this Contract will be arbitrated in accordance with the Rules of the American Arbitration Association and the Federal Arbitration Act. Arbitration may not be initiated unless the party requesting arbitration has given the other party at least 30 days prior written notice of its intent to initiate arbitration and a detailed description of the basis of the dispute. A single arbitrator (or, in any matter in which the amount in controversy exceeds $100,000, a panel of three arbitrators) shall interpret this Contract in accordance with Iowa law and shall conduct proceedings in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Any punitive damages awarded by the arbitrator(s) shall not exceed two times compensatory damages awarded. Any award of the arbitrator shall be deemed final and judgment upon such award may be entered and enforced in any Iowa District Court and transferred to any other jurisdiction. Such arbitration will be held in Des Moines, Iowa.

18. Non Interference

As a condition of, and material inducement to the consideration set forth herein, you agree you will not, for a period of two (2) years following termination of this Contract, directly, indirectly, or through others, induce or urge any policyowner, after termination of this Contract, to lapse, exchange, surrender or otherwise terminate any policy, or induce or urge any employee or member of our field force to terminate any relationship with us. In the event this provision is violated and without limitation of our other remedies, all your rights to Compensation under this Contract will immediately cease and you will be liable for any damages we suffer. You further agree that money damages for your breach of this provision will be inadequate and that we are also entitled to seek injunctive relief to prevent further breaches of this provision. We may seek that injunctive relief, coupled with any claim by us for damages, in any state or federal district court in Des Moines, Iowa, and you agree that those courts have personal jurisdiction over you for the purpose of such actions, which shall not be subject to the Arbitration provisions of this Contract.

19. Contract Binding on Principals

In the event that you are contracting with us as a corporation, partnership, LP, LLC., or other business entity, it is further agreed and guaranteed by the principals of said business entity that all terms and conditions of this Contract shall be binding on them severally and jointly in the same manner as upon the entity named as the producer.

Part III Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding.

Certification Instructions.—You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. (See the instructions on page 2.)

Purpose of Form.—A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must get your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 to give your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are an exempt payee.

Note: If a requester gives you a form other than a W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

What Is Backup Withholding?—Persons making certain payments to you must withhold and pay to the IRS 31% of such payments under certain conditions. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

If you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return, payments you receive will not be subject to backup withholding. Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

- You do not furnish your TIN to the requester, or
- The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN, or
- The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
- You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 3 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only), or

- You do not certify your TIN when required. See the Part III instructions on page 2 for details.

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the Part II instructions and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Penalties

Failure To Furnish TIN.—If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil Penalty for False Information With Respect to Withholding.—If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal Penalty for Falsifying Information.— Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs.—If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of Federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name.—If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your social security card. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage, without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first and then circle the name of the person or entity whose number you enter in Part I of the form.

Sole Proprietor.—You must enter your individual name as shown on your social security card. You may enter your business, trade, or “doing business as” name on the business name line.

Other Entities.—Enter the business name as shown on required Federal tax documents. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or “doing business as” name on the business name line.

Part I—Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

You must enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How To Get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, using your EIN may result in unnecessary notices to the requester.

Note: See the chart on this page for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How To Get a TIN.—If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5 from your local Social Security Administration office. Get Form W-7 to apply for an ITIN or Form SS-4 to apply for an EIN. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you do not have a TIN, write “Applied For” in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, you will generally have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester. Other payments are subject to backup withholding.

Note: Writing “Applied For” means that you have already applied for a TIN OR that you intend to apply for one soon.

Part II—For Payees Exempt From Backup Withholding

Individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends. For more information on exempt payees, see the Separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding. Enter your correct TIN in Part I, write “Exempt” in Part II, and sign and date the form.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester a completed Form W-8, Certificate of Foreign Status.

Part III—Certification

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required).

1. Interest, Dividend, and Barter Exchange Accounts Opened Before 1984 and Broker Accounts Considered Active During 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, Dividend, Broker, and Barter Exchange Accounts Opened After 1983 and Broker Accounts Considered Inactive During 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real Estate Transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other Payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. “Other payments” include payments made in the course of the requester’s trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services (including attorney and accounting fees), and payments to certain fishing boat crew members.

5. Mortgage Interest Paid by You, Acquisition or Abandonment of Secured Property, Cancellation of Debt, or IRA Contributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to give your correct TIN to persons who must file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, and certain other income paid to you, mortgage interest you paid, the acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA. The IRS uses the numbers for identification purposes and to help verify the accuracy of your tax return. The IRS may also provide this information to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, and the District of Columbia to carry out their tax laws.

You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Payers must generally withhold 31% of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to a payer. Certain penalties may also apply.
